ALTAR FOR JAYNE MANSFIELD BY MARC LESCHELIER AT VILLA NOAILLES

Until March 15, 2020

The installation by Marc Leschelier entitled Altar for Jayne Mansfield is a post-mortem house for the American actress which represent some aspects of her aesthetic universe in an architectural language. The cement block building is not assembled with mortar but with chains that attach the blocks together. The altar, closed by 4 glitter curtains, is occupied in its centre by a brick cascade over which flows a golden matter - which is nothing but glitter mortar - held in place by a chain necklace. Together, these elements constitute a constructed allegory of Jayne Mansfield's personality and the star's aesthetic incorporation into the architectural material.

ABOUT DAMN°

DAMN° is an independent publication with open-minded views on the interchangeable worlds of design, architecture and art. In making meaningful connections rather than dictating tastes, its approach to storytelling brings editorial content beyond hype or conventional academic debate. Unafraid to link the personal and the political, the economic and the emotional, the stylistic and the social, DAMN° is ultimately about discoveries that aim to provoke a reaction...whether it be a thought or a smile.
